SPONSOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS

Sponsoring

PRAY:

Before even talking with someone about the walk, pray for the Lord's guidance in who & when to sponsor. Pray for the person you are considering. Prayer should be focused on how this person can become a more vitally alive Christian in helping bring God's kingdom into his/her natural environment, rather than how to get this person to attend the weekend.

APPOINTMENT:

Make an appointment to make the invitation. After sharing your own experience, make sure the person knows your invitation is to a more vitally alive relationship with Jesus Christ, not just to attend a weekend. Carefully explain each of the following: a) reunion groups b) monthly gatherings, C) renewed interest in serving one's own church, and d) scholarship program.

APPLICATION:

Have Pilgrim fill out registration form in your presence, answering any question they may have. If married, both spouses must fill out a separate form. Be sure to get the $25 deposit, and that the balance must be paid off by send off. Make checks payable to: Foothills Emmaus Community. Be sure all blanks on both sponsor & Pilgrim forms are filled in- if not application will be returned to be completed. You need not wait until the last minute!! Applications are welcome any time; if you wait too long, a waiting

AGAPE LETTERS:

Start mailing out request for agape letters and begin to collect them. Deliver them to the agape person prior to the weekend, at Send-off (very discreetly) or at Candlelight. NO INDIVIDUAL ACTS OF AGAPE FOR ANY PILGRIMS LETTERS ONLY!

INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY:

The Foothills Emmaus Community operates under a letter of agreement with the International Community. This agreement states that "husbands & wives should make an equal commitment to participate." This does not imply that Emmaus is primarily intended for married persons; single persons are welcome to participate as married couples. The rule does, however, reflect a concern & a hope about the effect of Emmaus on marriages & families.

The Weekend

SEND-OFF:

It is VERY IMPORTANT that you personally bring your pilgrim to Send-off, help get them registered, see that the balance is paid, & get their luggage tagged. Attend sponsor's hour. If the pilgrim has a family, make sure you contact them several times to let them know the candidate is doing well, & see if there is anything you can do for them.

CANDLELIGHT:

This is often the highlight of the weekend, be there for YOUR pilgrim, and get the husband there for the wife.

CLOSING:

Be there ready to hug your new family member (offer to bring the husband to the wife's weekend) and invite them to the group dinner afterwards, if possible. For men, remind them what to tell their wives and what not to tell, and offer to help them keep the agape a secret.

Fourth Day

CONTACT:

Your pilgrim on Monday, helping him/her digest the experience.

REUNION GROUP:

Bring your pilgrim to follow-up. Help your pilgrim find a reunion group- yours or advise them of others you are aware of in your area. This is perhaps the most important aspect of remaining active in Emmaus.

GATHERING:

Offer to bring your pilgrim to the gatherings for a few months & explain about bringing food.

CHURCH:

Make sure the person goes back to his/her church with an enthusiastic supportive attitude.

EMMAUS COMMUNITY:

Help the person understand how he/she can serve the community. Explain the various background committees. Then, after a period of active participation in the community & reunion group, they may be asked to serve on a team.

SPONSORING:

Help them to remember that the community is committed to recruiting strong church leaders for the purpose of strengthening the local church. It is not meant to cure all human ills.

Guidance from the Upper Room Handbook

First, the equal participation rule guards against the Emmaus experience becoming a separating influence in a marriage. Emmaus can be the occasion for commitments to new life directions which one's spouse may not understand or appreciate at the time. Disregard for the rule will certainly not result in marital tensions in every case. But the Emmaus movement should do all it can to strengthen marriages & to avoid practices which we know have the potential to affect a marriage adversely.

Second, Emmaus can indirectly strengthen the spiritual bond in a marriage & family. Married persons should be approached together & encouraged to make an equal commitment to participate.

Third, the equal commitment rule results in increased participation of many grateful husbands and wives (usually husbands) who probably would not have attended an Emmaus weekend otherwise, but did so in order to make it possible for their spouse to attend.

The equal commitment rule does NOT mean a wife can never go to Emmaus unless her husband has gone first. While it is always best to schedule husbands and wives to participate during the same set of weekends so they can share their experience and support one another, circumstances may arise when it is necessary and reasonable for husbands or wives to take their walks at different times or places.

It is important that the wisdom of the rule be honored in Emmaus communities. There is a place for reasonable exceptions, when there is no possibility of the participation of one spouse.

Each community must prayerfully decide how to handle these cases in grace and when to make exceptions in view of a person's and family's spiritual welfare. As general guidance, the Foothills board is advocating that the sponsor talk with husband and wife as a couple, assuring understanding of the above. Pray for and with the couple for God's guidance. Wait six months and see what prayer has done for the couple.
